THE

Seemingly opposite worlds come together at The Tre Ver. This is a home that recognises the duality and drive of life. Where the life of the river flows beyond the banks, and the green extends towards the sky. This is a home for one and all, for now and the future.

TREES RIVER HOME

“The natural landscape that surrounds The Tre Ver extends into the development. The serenity of the river and the beauty of the raintrees are integrated with the design. What you get are homes that are planted on a beautiful landscape rather than built on just a hard, concrete surface.”

A Winning Partnership

The name WOHA is synonymous with sustainable design and living. Since its founding in 1994 by Wong Mun Summ and Richard Hassell, the practice has gained global recognition for their innovative work. Their buildings are green, community-driven, and humanistic. Together with WOHA Architects, UOL and Singapore Land Limited are proud to introduce their latest award-winning collaboration yet. A bird's eye view. The Kallang River, next to The Tre Ver, flows towards central Singapore, connecting to Marina Bay. The Tre Ver itself sits within a green and serene riverfront enclave. In the mornings, you can even hear the birds sing.

All-Round Conveniences

All that you need can be found within and surrounding Potong Pasir. There's Toa Payoh, Novena, and Bishan to the west, and the city to the south. With eateries, shops, schools, parks and more, there's always something to do all day, every day.

HOME

THE

Artist's Impression

The Tre Ver brings together the best of worlds. Home by the river, and by the city. A private sanctuary for the family, with a shared sense of community. Man and nature coexisting in harmony. This is riverfront living at its best.

RIVER

Riverfront Living

Nestled amidst a lush, verdant landscape, The Tre Ver turns a much sought-after riverfront lifestyle into reality. The Kallang River, right at the doorstep of The Tre Ver, connects nature and the city. This is a dream home for both the urbanite and the nature lover.

Home is an early morning jog by the river. The moving water reflecting the soft, shy light. Home is children's laughter as they chase the dragonflies. The river takes you home and away.

REIMAGINE

REVITALIZE

Originating from Lower Peirce Reservoir, the 10-kilometre long Kallang River flows through Bishan-Ang Mo Kio Park, Toa Payoh and Potong Pasir, connecting to central Singapore. Today, the river is set for revitalization to make the areas surrounding it a vibrant lifestyle hub.

REJUVENATE

The River Reborn

There are numerous ideas to rejuvenate Kallang River. Running trails, new underpasses, and cycling paths would connect pedestrians and cyclists to the city and beyond.

CTE Crossing

The existing CTE Crossing could be widened to create a more conducive environment. This underpass could also be used as an interesting community space with better lighting and rest areas.

Over PIE

In future, a 500-metre long spiral ramp would loop over the 16-lane PIE from St. Andrew's Village to Mar Thoma Road, making the connection more seamless for cyclists and joggers.

Kampong Bugis

With a focus on sustainability and pedestrian-friendly walkways, Kampong Bugis is set to be developed into an attractive precinct for the larger community to enjoy.

TREES RIVER HOME

A home for life's moments, inside and out

Planted by the river, with magnificent raintrees as a backdrop, The Tre Ver encapsulates the best of home. Thoughtful landscaping, lush greenery, natural social spaces. These become the setting for creating life's most precious moments. This is where you play, learn, grow and live.

THE TRE VER

Artist's Impression

Artist's Impression

From the moment you alight at the green drop-off, you are at home with nature. Existing mature raintrees are not only carefully preserved, they are integrated into The Tre Ver's landscape. As you walk around, you'll be captivated by nature's poetic forms and details.

Artist's Impression

Kallang River's natural beauty is also seamlessly extended into The Tre Ver's landscape. The water reflects the surroundings to create an inviting urban oasis. An exceptional home set in nature, with a full suite of modern day facilities.
